When Bugs Bunny tells a tale, it's bound to be a tall one! Bugs Bunny's 1,001 Rabbit Tales, the third feature-length Warner Bros. cartoon movie, is a treasure trove of giant-sized entertainment.

There's a giant, all right, in a screwball retelling of Jack and the Beanstalk. And other favorite stories like Goldilocks and the Three Bears, Hansel and Gretel and Little Red Riding Hood get the wacky Warner treatment in this delightful assemblage of vintage Merrie Melodies and Looney Tunes along with new animation produced by Friz Freleng. That treatment includes a cavalcade of comic characters surrounding the wascally wabbit: Daffy Duck, Elmer Fudd, Sylvester, Tweety, Speedy Gonzales, Witch Hazel, Michigan J. Frog, and that pinheaded potentate Sultan Sam.

Sultan Sam's spoiled son, the crabby Crown Prince Abadaba, requires a storyteller - and there's no better tale-spinning cottontail than the world's most favorite 50-years-young rabbit. With Bugs Bunny's 1,001 Rabbit Tales, Cartoon fans of all ages are in no better hands.
